

Enter, answer, and submit

Use the student key, confirm your identity, and begin.

Start here

1 Enter

Open the Student door. Enter the student key, real name, student number, subject, and year level.

2 Preview

Check the examination title, duration, questions, and safeguards. Questions remain sealed until you begin.

3 Answer

Write, navigate when allowed, and flag items for review. Your work saves locally first and then synchronizes.

4 Submit

Review completion, submit once, keep the signed receipt, and return when the creator releases the result.

Only the signed-in session and active student key are needed. An email is entered only for a creator's optional email-limited room.

The screenshot displays a mobile application interface for an examination. At the top, it says 'Constitutional Law' and 'Preview examination details →'. Below this, it indicates 'STEP 2 OF 2' and 'Confirm before entering'. A note states: 'Only examination metadata is shown here. Questions remain sealed.' The main content is a table of examination details:

Examination	Constitutional Law — Midterm Examination
Subject	Constitutional Law
Professor	Prof. Elena M. Villanueva
Duration	2 hours
Questions	4
Availability	Available while this student key remains active

Below the table, there is a section titled 'Examination safeguards' with a checked checkbox and three bullet points:

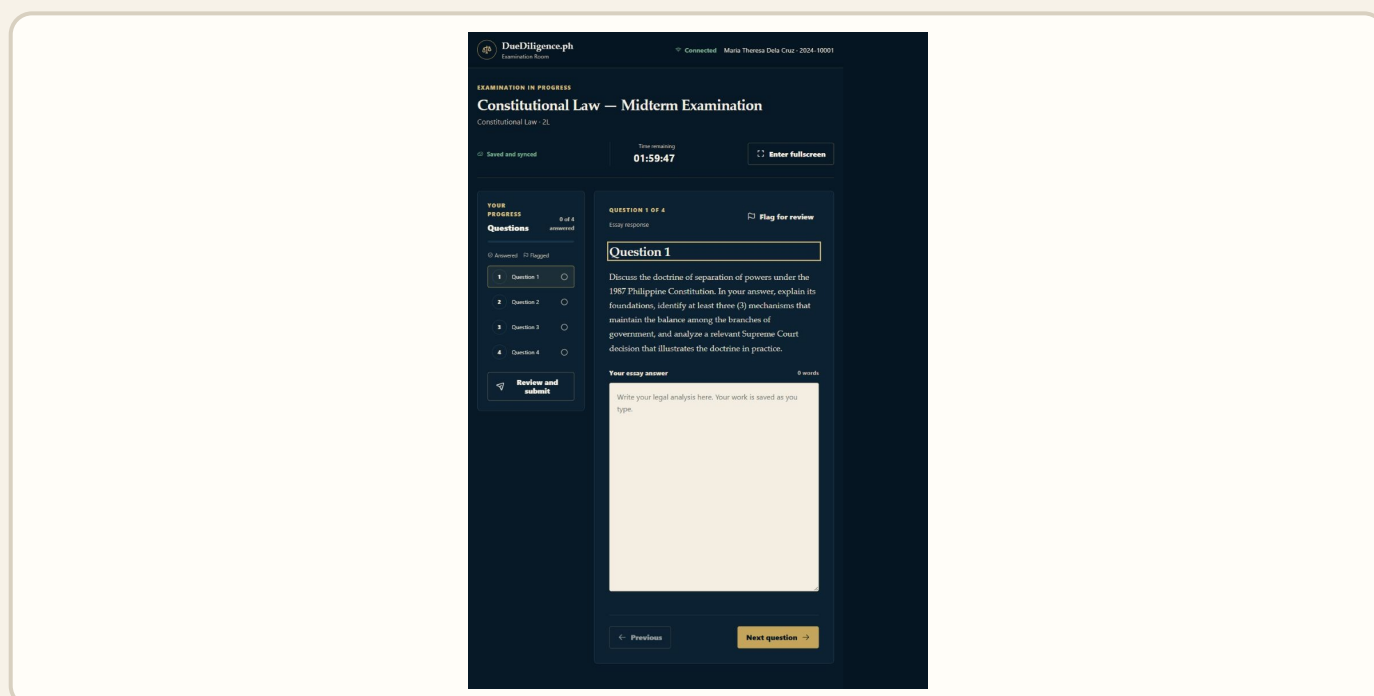

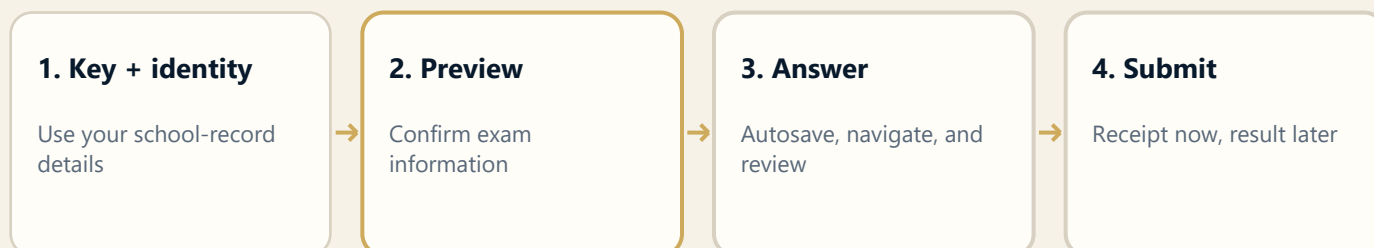

- Answers are saved locally first and synchronized when connected.
- Focus, visibility, connection, and fullscreen changes are recorded for professor review.
- This examination does not require camera or microphone recording.

At the bottom, there are two buttons: '← Change details' and 'Begin examination →'.

Current preview leads directly to Begin examination - no additional agreement screen.

The complete flow

Current examination workspace immediately after Begin examination.

If something interrupts the flow

Disconnected

Keep the page open. Saved answers remain recoverable and synchronize after reconnection.

Not admitted

Recheck the key and identity. Add email only if the creator limited admission to listed emails.

After submission

Keep the receipt reference. Use Check for result after the creator releases grades.
